

Juliette Gordon Low – Founder of the Girl Scouts and Jimmy Carter – 39th President of the USA

Write an Opinion Piece

Jimmy Carter loved to help people. He saw a need and he took the initiative to help when he could. Write an opinion piece on a need that you see in your community and share how you could solve this problem.

Create a Trading Card

Create a trading card for Jimmy Carter or Juliette Gordon Low. Make sure that you include important facts about his or her life and contributions to society.

Design a Timeline

Create a timeline for either Jimmy Carter or Juliet Gordon Low. Sequence the important events of their life. You must include at least 6 events.

Create a Girl Scout Badge.

Scout badges are a great way to explore interests and show the world what you have accomplished. Create your own badge and write an informational / opinion piece explaining why earning this badge would be important. Tell the steps needed to earn the badge.

List Character Traits

Draw a picture of either Jimmy Carter or Juliette Gordon Low. List the character traits that helped them be a good leader. Why are these traits important? (example: honesty, dependability, compassion, leadership)

Compare and Contrast

How is your life similar and different to the lives of Jimmy Carter or Juliette Gordon Low? Make a Venn Diagram comparing and contrasting your life and one of the famous Georgians we have studied.